

PRECISION Antivirus Assurance

infinite possibility

What is it?

It is estimated that 7-10 viruses appear every day – a threat that demands quick detection and response. Many companies don't even know whether they have viruses or not.

The consequences of a virus impact on your bottom line instantly. Your reputation suffers because you're sending out viruses to other companies.

Precision offers you a fixed-cost, end-to-end preventive service. This includes monitoring. So you are protected against the newest threats enabling you to keep costs down and business productivity high.

How it works

Our antivirus assurance software narrows your window of vulnerability. It provides a live update on your system every 60 minutes.

The initial set up charge includes the installation and the cost of the software. The low cost, fixed, monthly fee also covers the cost of licence renewals. So there are no worries about renewing the licence. It just continues on.

We are so confident of our antivirus product that should the unthinkable happen, we guarantee to cleanse the system of the virus and no extra cost.

Benefits

Our antivirus assurance software gives you complete control and peace of mind.

- You are always up to date
- Software always current
- Latest software versions updated automatically
- Saves time and removes problem of checking individual PCs for updates
- Software licence automatically renewed.

Plus the fixed monthly cost covers all eventualities so you can budget more effectively.
